DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The reply filed on February 12, 2004 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s): The claims as originally presented cite "a computerimplemented method, a computerized system, a computer executable program code residing on a computer-readable medium and a computer data signal embodied in a digital data stream for managing risk related to a financial transaction, the method comprising: gathering data related to risk variables for a financial transaction; receiving information relating to details of a financial transaction; structuring the information received according to risk quotient criteria; and calculating a risk quotient referencing the structured information and the gathered data" whereas the amended claims recite "a computer-implemented method, a computerized system, a computer executable program code residing on a computer-readable medium and a computer data signal embodied in a digital data stream for managing risk related to a financial transaction, the method comprising: gathering data into a computer storage, the data related to risk variables for a financial transaction; receiving information into the computer storage relating to details of a financial transaction; structuring with a processor, the information received according to risk quotient criteria; and generating with the processor, a risk quotient comprising at least one of: a scaled numeric value and a scaled alphanumeric value based upon the structured information related to the financial transaction and the gathered data". Clearly the methods of the two claims are different, and so is their scope and utility. Hence the two methods are distinct and different inventions. See 37 CFR 1.111. The two inventions also require substantially different searches. The applicant elected the former invention by original presentation. The rejection of the original claims as discussed in the office action stands. (See MPEP 8.21.03) Since the above-mentioned reply appears to be bona fide, applicant is given ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this notice, whichever is longer, within which to supply the omission or correction in order to avoid abandonment. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).
